PER CURIAM.

Leugene Cash Bettis appeals the district court's adverse grant of summary judgment in Bettis's action to recover pension benefits under the Employee Retirement Income Security Act. After careful review of the record and the parties' submissions, we conclude that no error of law appears in the district court's ruling and that an extended discussion is unnecessary. Contrary to Bettis's view, the record is clear that Bettis was not eligible for pension benefits under the St. Louis Teamsters Brewery Workers Pension Plan because she was not an employee of a participating union employer. We thus affirm the district court's ruling. See 8th Cir. R. 47B.
